PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.—Hebrews 11:1

Have you noticed any changes lately? For a few weeks now I have noticed trees are beginning to turn colors as the summer months transition into fall. Changing seasons is one of the things I have always appreciated about living in the mid-west. Though I realize that the cold winter season follows behind, fall has long been my favorite season of the year. fall is when the fruits of the summer labors are gathered. The weeding and tending is over. Now comes the season for assessing the bounty of the harvest of seeds that months before were sown in hope. No one plants seeds without the hope that they will sprout and grow with the ability of being productive. No, we plant with a sense of assurance and conviction. The writer of the book of Hebrews describes this as faith. We may not understand, we may not see, but we are confident that somehow, faith will see us through the changes of life. As Christians, we are resurrection people. We are people of faith who believe that even as the winter season of life will one day come for us all, we are confident that God's plan as revealed through the death and resurrection of Jesus will sustain us. We need not fear the changes but accept them as an expected pattern of life. - Fr. Craig

REFLECTIONS ON THE READINGS

Pentecost 16— September 9/September 12

The grumbling of the Pharisees and the scribes in today's gospel is actually our holy hope: This Jesus welcomes sinners and eats with them. That our God wills to seek and to save the lost is not only a holy hope, it is our only hope. As Paul's first letter to Timothy reminds us, "The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." Thanks be to God.

Pentecost 17 — September 16/ September 19

As we are invited today to consider what it means to be managers (rather than owners) of all that we have, it is crucial to recall that we are bought with a price. "Christ Jesus, himself human, . . . gave himself a ransom for all." Apart from the generosity of God we have nothing—we are nothing. By God's gracious favor we have everything we need.

GOOD STEWARDS

There have been extra dollar bills as part of regular weekly offerings recently. Thanks to those who have been generous in participating in the "Spare a Buck" challenge.

As we approach the last quarter of 2010, the Stewardship Ministry is asking each of you, as the membership of Saint Andrew, to search your hearts and join in the program to assist Saint Andrew with financial responsibility. As people of God, we are called upon to reach out to others and join in the mission of sharing God's word. Julie Salamon, an author on charity tells us, "We are measured not by what we have, but by what we give to one another."

Clearly, our gifts to God connect and move us. Please prayerfully consider the challenge of joining in the Saint Andrew "Spare a Buck" program, joyfully contributing an extra dollar next week, two dollars the following week, and so forth. In today's world, that extra buck is something most of us won't miss. When you ponder the "Spare a Buck" challenge, please think on the words of Jesus, "Store up for yourselves treasures in heaven...For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." — Matthew 6:20-21

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

We are adding some "SPARK" to our Church School Program this fall! The Spark curriculum is designed to activate faith; What if we could see kids building a personal relationship with God's Word? The Spark church school curriculum that we will be utilizing from Augsburg Fortress is online and lectionary based which means the lessons taught in church school will correlate with the readings during the church service for that day, positively impacting understanding of God's Word. We are just beginning to tap into the capabilities of the online resources for parents, teachers, and leaders. Join us for opening in the sanctuary each Sunday (or monthly on Thursdays.) We are anxious to show you more Spark! Let your children see the "spark" inside of you, take some time to be involved in your child's Christian education...we are the church together! Let's get the fire

Have you heard about one of the best kept secrets at Saint Andrew? It is the Adult Church School class! Beginning September 12, the class meets each Sunday during the church school time, 9:15-10:15 am in the Activity Room (adjacent to the Fellowship Hall). Come and enjoy some great discussion, wonderful fellowship, a cup of coffee and cookies!

NEW MINISTRY AT SALC

A new ministry, Communications and Technology, is being formed and needs time and talent. Time commitments include 1 to 2 hours at Ministry Night each month and a willingness to commit the time needed to complete communication projects to support the SALC Mission. Projects including brochures, event photography, photo collages, webpage development and Webmaster services are already on a growing "to-do" list. If you are a computer or information technology professional, your expertise is needed with computer hardware, software, wireless networks, social media, etc. Writing and computer skills will be most helpful.

Another way to share your Time and Talent through Saint Andrew.
