PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

Have you ever wondered about the structure of worship? Have you wondered about the symbols and colors of the church year? Why do we call the sharing of gifts an “offering” rather than a “collection?” Where does the money go? What happens to the left over bread and wine from communion? Who bakes the bread? Perhaps there are questions you have often wondered about but were afraid to ask or didn’t think you could ask. This fall the children’s message will be used to address symbols, liturgical images and the rich traditions that we so often take for granted but that are very much part of how we worship. Children are not afraid to say what’s on their minds and seeing the world through their eyes can be refreshing for all of us. Come to worship prepared not only to pray and praise God but also to learn about the liturgical pattern of worship and the structure that helps tell God’s story of love and grace. Worship is central to the life of the Saint Andrew community. I am hopeful we can learn with and from each other. The next messages will focus on the “Entrance Rite” and what role acolytes serve in worship.

— Pr. Craig

REFLECTIONS ON THE READINGS

Pentecost 18— September 23/September 26

Consideration of and care for those in need (especially those "at our gate," visible to us, of whom we are aware) is an essential component of good stewardship. It is in the sharing of wealth that we avoid the snare of wealth. It is the one whom death could not hold—who comes to us risen from the dead—who can free us from the death grip of greed.

Pentecost 19 — September 30/ October 3

A little faith goes a long way is our Lord's point in the gospel. A mustard seed's-worth has miraculous potential. The patience, tenacity, and endurance required for the life of faith are the blessings received in water and the word (holy baptism), bread and wine (holy communion), the word read and proclaimed in this assembly. Anticipate them. Receive them with thanksgiving.

GOOD STEWARDS

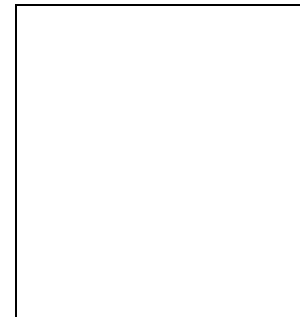

Members of church council and the Stewardship Ministry have made calls to Saint Andrew members about pledge support for 2010. Some people have expressed intent to catch up and some have expressed regret that a change in personal finances makes it more difficult. Regardless of how people have been able to respond, most of these calls have been positive allowing a conversation to take place to help people express ministry ideas and insights that may well translate into new opportunities to address congregational needs. The first mission for Saint Andrew was to enter into conversation with the local community. As we move into the fall and plan for another year of ministry for 2011, it would be great to find ways to continue that missional conversation and learn more about ways you can share your gifts out of gratitude for God has and continues to do among us. Your Stewardship Ministry would be glad to learn with you. This year's Every Member Response program will include opportunities to share ideas as well as intended support of and participation in the mission and ministry of Saint Andrew.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

As part of this year's confirmation program, each student will participate in Acolyte training and will be encouraged to share in this important leadership role during worship. While not a requirement, this is an opportunity and each student is expected to consider this as part of their confirmation experience. Parents can do much to support and encourage their child to participate. A signup sheet will be posted on the bulletin board across from the church office. Thanks for your help.

A new student bible is being presented to second grade students this year. The Bible has stickers and other helpful learning tips that will be helpful for children to both begin and grow in their knowledge and understanding of the first language of faith. Bibles will be presented at the beginning of worship on Thursday, September 23 at 6:15 pm and Sunday, September 26 at 10:30 am.

COMMUNITY DINNER SERVED

Thank you to the nineteen members from Saint Andrew, which included individuals, two complete family units and four Sr. High youth, who volunteered their time and talents last Sunday afternoon to help provide supper for others in need. Fellowship and a hot meal of tuna casserole, green beans, acorn squash, coleslaw, cupcakes and ice cream were offered at the First Presbyterian Church in downtown Wausau. Total served was just under 100 plates.

In addition to cooking and serving, our Saint Andrew volunteers were welcoming and shared conversation to help the guests have a warm and friendly experience. Time well spent and an enjoyable chance to help out was communicated by those who participated.

A heartfelt thank you to Saint Andrew's Social Ministry group for their efforts to plan, coordinate and prepare this wonderful outreach opportunity in our community. Mark your calendar for the next chance to participate with this activity on Sunday, November 21.

PRAYER CENTER

In response to personal requests, the Prayer Center list will not only be recognized in worship but also on this side of the calendar each month. As you review the day to day list of events that take place at Saint Andrew, please also give consideration to those who have requested prayers. Do you know of someone who is in need of prayer? (Please ask first). Call the church office at 842-3333 to have names added to the list at the Prayer Center. Names will be updated on a regular basis.

FOR THESE WE PRAY...

Thank you, Lord, for always answering prayer, but not indulging my every petty, private request. Thank you for winnowing and refining, vetoing and delaying, refusing and revisin. Thank you for being God and never less, for freeing me for wide horizons, for protecting me from my limited vision and wayward will. Thank you for foiling my every effort to unseat you and make myself king. Thank you for keeping it safe for me to pray.
