PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

I recently learned what it feels like to advance a generation of time through one experience. After many months of anticipation, Karen and I became grandparents. Aydan Douglas was born the last day of September and thanks to many, Karen and I were able to get away for a day to experience this first time event with our son and daughter-in-law. There are many life experiences that cause a person to pause and consider how blessed we are to share them with special people in our lives. For thirty years, ministry experiences have been shared through the members of Saint Andrew Lutheran Church. Much has changed over the course of this generation of time while the mission of being open to all people who wish to express faith in God through Jesus Christ through worship, learning, witness and service has remained the same. This mission has the potential of being fulfilled by those who are faithful and active through support and participation in the mission and ministry we share through this congregation. It is an exciting time to give thanks for the blessings of the past while at the same time making intentional plans for the opportunities that are before us. Together we are partners in mission and ministry. Thanks to all who share in this partnership through faithful support and active participation. - Pr. Craig

The life and ministry of Saint Andrew Lutheran Church shall be open to all who wish to express their faith in God through Jesus Christ by worship, learning, witness and service.

REFLECTIONS ON THE READINGS

Pentecost 20— October 7/October 10

*It's a miracle! Multiple miracles!
The waters of holy baptism have healed us. The body and blood of Jesus in holy communion have made us clean. We have died with Christ and been raised with him.
For all this we have returned to offer thanks. From this place we are sent on our way rejoicing to share the good news.*

Pentecost 21 — October 14/October 17

*Pray always. Do not lose heart.
This is the encouragement of the Christ of the gospel today.
Persistence in our every encounter with the divine will be blessed.
Wrestle with the word.
Remember your baptism again and again. Come regularly to Christ's table. Persistence in our every encounter with the divine will be blessed.*

GOOD STEWARDS

This year, Saint Andrew Lutheran Church is celebrating its 30th year of ministry, and ironically finds itself in the most serious financial difficulty in these 30 years. This year, contributions are significantly below pledged amounts, leaving the church with operating funds well short of the budget. Only interest has been paid on the mortgage for the past five months leading to program cuts and possible staff reductions or reduced hours. This communication is a proposal to ask for your help. In the next few weeks, as part of the annual "Every Member Response" program, members will be receiving a pledge card for 2011. All are encouraged to reflect on the many ways your life has been enriched and blessed through the ministry shared at Saint Andrew. In this 30th year of ministry, what better opportunity to express gratitude than by renewing your commitment of support for another year of ministry and for the next generation of ministries to come.

LEARN. GROW. DISCOVER. RETREAT.

If you can spare a couple of hours this weekend consider a quick drive to Waypost Camp this Saturday the 9th to lend a hand for Camp Work Day to prepare for the winter season. Any amount of time and help will be greatly appreciated. Lunch and an amazing view of the fall colors around Mission Lake will be provided. Call the church office for easy directions at (715) 842-3333.

When summer camp ends, the ministry and outreach of Crossways continues. They offer a wide range of retreats to help meet the needs of individuals, families, congregations, and local communities. With Crossways, retreat guests learn about themselves, their faith, and life in community with others. Invite a friend or family and sign up for one of their great retreats today.

A listing of retreats upcoming yet in 2010 and already scheduled for 2011 is available in the literature rack and on the bulletin boards or go to www.Crosswayscamps.org.
