PASTORAL REFLECTIONS by Pastor Craig

I have long loved the image of the early church where the good of all was foundational as a basis for community. "All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people." Acts 2:44-47a

It is an image of cooperation and generous sharing which expresses genuine care for the other and I find is authentic to the message of the gospel. Such communal living exists in various communities, yet today, for the most part, we live more independent from one another rather than united. The recent political showdown is reflective of divisions that are created when opposing views do more to polarize than unite. It is impractical to think we are going to sell our possessions and move in with one another as in a group home community, but there are ways we can reflect the identity we share in Christ to identify and respond to the needs of others.

One way that has recently arisen to assist others is in providing pastoral leadership for a neighboring congregation. Due to a recent health diagnosis, the pastor at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Kronenewetter has taken early retirement. Pastor Frank Connor has served the congregation for several years but needs to focus on taking care of his health issues and step away from his role as pastor. Sharon Fox-Bogen is rostered as an Associate in Ministry and has agreed to provide leadership for the congregation and I have agreed to mentor her and provide pastoral support to the congregation during this transitional time. Practically speaking, this means that Pastor Jenn, Pastor Jeff or I will be at Bethlehem on the first and third Sundays of each month to administer the sacraments and occasionally preach as needed. This does not expand our mission or affect budgetary support, but expands participation to assist with a need of the larger church. I believe this reflects first century ministry and it feels right to reach out to a leader and a congregation with pastoral support.

Are there other ways we can reflect the unity we share as members of the Body of Christ? As we consider the possibilities, I encourage us to hold to the image Paul shares with the Ephesians to "maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace... But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love." (from Ephesians 4). May we be so equipped in working together for the sake of serving and witnessing our common faith in Christ Jesus.

The life and ministry of Saint Andrew Lutheran Church shall be open to all who wish to express their faith in God through Jesus Christ by worship, learning, witness and service.

Fair Trade Items

Add Fair Trade products to your Christmas shopping list. Advent calendars are available for $8 and must be pre-ordered before November 10. Call the church office at 715-842-3333 to place your order. On November 14 & 17 and December 12 & 15 an abundant supply of chocolates, teas and coffees, all of which make great stocking stuffers or gift basket items, will be available in the Fellowship Hall.

Supporting Fair Trade products has the potential to change lives. Purchases make it possible for farmers to receive training, help in planting trees and providing storage until the products are delivered for processing. The farmers' cooperatives join together to form unions giving them storage bargaining power. The coffees, teas and chocolate purchases help lift families out of poverty.

Start planning now for your holiday gift giving of Fair Trade products.

Thanksgiving Birds

Can you help those families less fortunate? The following items are now being accepted for holiday food baskets at this time: turkeys, potatoes, onions, vegetables, boxed stuffing, canned yams, cranberry sauce, canned vegetables, canned pumpkin, evaporated milk, pie crust, Jell-O, gravy and monetary donations. Thanksgiving Baskets will be assembled Saturday, November 23. If you know someone who needs a basket please call the church office by November 20 at 715-842-3333.

Buy a Parking Space

In 2001, "Buy a Key" was established and the beautiful grand piano was purchased to enhance worship at Saint Andrew. In 2007, "Buy a Hymnal" was established and the new Cranberry Hymnals were made possible through your generous gifts! Did you know that Saint Andrew offers 227 parking spaces, 9 of which are handicap designated? Planning has begun to replace the asphalt on the east parking lot as was just done on the south lot in September. Today, "Buy A Parking Space" has been established - your supporting gift of $125 per space, or any amount you feel comfortable giving, to help this plan become a reality will be greatly appreciated. Envelopes are available at the information desk for your gift!

A letter has been mailed to parents of second students regarding receiving a Bible. If you did not receive a letter and have a child that should receive a Bible this year, please call the church office to let us know. As a congregation, we promise to support and pray for these children and their lives in Christ. This Bible is a gift to each family from Saint Andrew, but at a cost of $16 per Bible, any special offerings to help offset the cost is appreciated.

WELCOME PRESIDING BISHOP ELIZABETH EATON

During the church wide assembly that took place this past August in Pittsburg, PA—a spirit-filled vote was taken by ecclesial ballot to call Bishop Elizabeth Eaton of the Northeastern Ohio synod into the highest office of our denomination. On October 5 at Rockefeller Memorial Chapel in Chicago, Bishop Eaton was formally installed as the new presiding bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America with more than 1,500 people in attendance. She follows Bishop Mark Hanson who served as presiding bishop for two consecutive terms (in total, 12 years). Presiding Bishop Eaton is the first woman to ever hold this office in the church. Please pray for her ministry and the ministry of the larger ELCA as she begins November 1.

Thank you, Lord, for always answering prayer, but not indulging my every petty, private request. Thank you for winnowing and refining, vetoing and delaying, refusing and revising. Thank you for being God and never less, for freeing me for wide horizons, for protecting me from my limited vision and wayward will. Thank you for foiling my every effort to unseat you and make myself king. Thank you for keeping it safe for me to pray.
