Pastor Craig Reflects on the Hope of God's Promise

With so many voices clamoring for attention in the world these days around power and influence, fears, disappointments, health concerns, isolation, pride, envy and the like, our ability to see and hear messages of truth become challenged and we can find ourselves wandering aimlessly and helplessly in search of promises that can be trusted. It is often true but it seems particularly so in an election year, that it is more and more challenging to identify what is true and what are empty promises. Candidates are no different than anyone else who look each other in the eye, make accusations or deny them because the truth has become so buried it no longer seems possible to separate perceptions (or deceptions) from truths.

So what gives you hope? What are the sources of truth in your world and for your lives? Do we find truth through social media sources? Through television or radio or printed media? Word of mouth or at social events? Or are these just platforms that encourage or at very least provide an avenue for information and ideas to be shared and incubated? I admit that I am becoming less and less trusting of what I first hear and see and attempt to look more deeply to determine if there is motive or advantage to a particular slant of information or ideas. Who is benefitting and perhaps more importantly, who is being left out of conversations, decisions or opportunities? What are the messages of those who have little or no voice and notably absent from the table of conversation and influence? When we identify those vacancies, what is being done to flavor communities from a diverse perspective and allow other insights to be shared?

This month, we continue to journey through Lent and we consider stories about rocks and stones that reveal God's faithfulness as restoration, transformation, proclamation, persistence, condemnation and finally, resurrection. Along this journey, we are reminded that even among the noise of life, there is a calming and yet stirring presence of God who inspires us with hopeful expectation, inviting us into a healthy curiosity to ponder what God is up to and where God is pouring out life in abundance for the sake of the world. Where the world attempts to dampen our spirits and lead us astray, God's promise does not mislead us or hinder the hopeful perspective we need.

As we turn the page on the calendar, we encounter more midweek worship services, Soup and Sandwich Fellowship, First Communion classes, Reception of New Members, the journey through Holy Week and eventually the celebration of God's divine promise at the highest level, the Resurrection of Our Lord on Easter Sunday, March 27. This is the central focus of God's divine love for us and for the world. Christ has died, Christ is risen, and we punctuate that hopeful promise with a festive Alleluia which resonates in lives of faith hungry for a truth that does not fade nor disappoint. So listen in. Join in. Sing out! Shout out! We have good news to share for it is a promise from God for us and for all the world.

GREETINGS FROM OUR SISTER CONGREGATION

Did you know Saint Andrew has a sister congregation in Zeerust, South Africa? While it is currently summer for them, they will visit us on their "winter" break in late June/early July. As they anticipate their visit, we recently heard from Benjamin, who is coordinating the details on their end; "We greet you in His holy name. It is very hot in Zeerust. We received some rain and hope conditions will change. We are experiencing drought in some of the areas and a late rain will assist. We are preparing for the visit and so far seven people have shown interest. We will give the exact number after the end of February. Pass our regard to all at Saint Andrew." Continue to watch the Network and Bulletin for further updates and opportunities to get involved as we get closer to and look forward to their visit.

PAINTING PARTY TO DEPICT THE EASTER STORY

Sunday, March 13, 10:45 am

AN INVITATION!

Did you know that 28% of our congregation is under the age of 20! That's a lot of people! The Christian Education Ministry is excited to share in another year of helping kids grow and learn about their faith. Right now there is a need for three or four more people to serve on this ministry. Monthly meetings are on the second Tuesday of every month, beginning at 6:30 pm. The next one is on Tuesday, March 9. While the group plans annual events, such as VBS and Sunday school, they are also excited and looking for new ways to connect and reach out to families, such as the painting party mentioned above. This is a great place to dream about new opportunities for the young people at Saint Andrew, to connect with others, and to serve in a meaningful way!

Thank you, Lord, for always answering prayer, but not indulging my every petty, private request. Thank you for winnowing and refining, vetoing and delaying, refusing and revising. Thank you for being God and never less, for freeing me for wide horizons, for protecting me from my limited vision and wayward will. Thank you for foiling my every effort to unseat you and make myself king. Thank you for keeping it safe for me to pray.
