Always
being made
New.

There is a slogan that has been in use by the ELCA for many years, "Always being made New." It is part of a campaign that is intended to raise support for the expanded ministry of the church for decades to come. In his explanation to the Sacrament of Baptism, Martin Luther urges a daily dying and rising—death to sin and rising to life in Christ—so that "a new person is to come forth and rise up to live before God in righteousness and purity forever." - from Luther's Small Catechism. This is possible because we believe in the death and resurrection of Jesus and through baptism, we are united with Christ so that we too might die and rise with him. This core theological witness reminds us that we are not self-renewing or self-serving, but that through Christ, the old self dies so that a new being might rise as witness and servant to that renewed identity.

Now 500 years later, the church celebrates the ongoing work of God's Spirit to call, gather, enlighten and make holy the whole Christian church on earth. It is not our work but it is God's work through us that we are free to care for the world God has made and delights in us to share.

Freed & RENEWED
in Christ 500
YEARS OF GOD'S GRACE IN ACTION

As we enter into a new program year this fall, I invite you to deepen your awareness of God's divine presence among us and strive to understand more clearly how we can be partners in serving God and one another through faithful support and participation in Christ's church. The large door in the fellowship hall displays 95 original arguments from Martin Luther who raised awareness of ways the church was in need of renewal. While his points were met with opposition, they also set in motion a movement that is at work yet today to challenge and free us for the sake of the gospel. The reverse side of the door is intended to be used to post ideas or insights that describe what the Reformation has inspired and now lives on as a result of the attempt to open ourselves to the renewing work of God's Spirit and Christ's redeeming work for the world. Feel free to staple your responses to the door so that we can celebrate the ongoing renewal of the church—locally and globally. In Christ, we are freed from sin and renewed for the sake of serving our neighbor through Christ together. In Christ, we are: "Always Being Made New."

The life and ministry of Saint Andrew Lutheran Church shall be open to all who wish to express their faith in God through Jesus Christ by worship, learning, witness and service.

A GREAT DAY AT THE GOLF OUTING

Thank you to all who attended the Annual Saint Andrew Golf Outing and to those who donated prizes. About 30 people participated in the outing this year. Congratulations to the first place team: Charles Kirsch, Jim Wending, Phil Pagel and Jim Taylor. We look forward to another round of fun and fellowship next year!

THANK YOU!!!

Over the course of the summer, many people have helped tend to the care of the church. For those who attended to the beauty of the landscaping by weeding and pruning while God watered in abundance, thank you. For those who stained portions of the exterior of the building, thank you. For those who provided snacks, host homes or meals for the VBS counselors or helped with snacks or classroom support or transportation to and from Waypost, thank you. For those who painted murals in the classrooms and hallway, thank you. For ministry members who provided fellowship activities, and made plans for fall education, thank you. For big and small ways any have participated and supported the work of Christ's church, thank you!

SALC IS "IN THE LOOP"

The Sanctuary is equipped with a hearing loop system. Those with hearing devices with a t-coil are encouraged to turn them on or ask to have them programmed by an audiologist to take advantage of this improved system.

SHARING THE GIFTS WE OFFER

Each quarter the Church Council chooses recipients for a benevolence contribution from Saint Andrew. This past quarter, a total of $3500 was given to AOD Partnership-Push Back Against Drugs, Aspirus Hospice House, SALC Scout Troop and an ASP Mission Trip follow-up support gift.

GOOD STEWARDS

Generosity and giving go hand in hand. They are also essential to the life and ministry of the church. Each year members are invited to consider a level of giving of support to the mission of the church that reflects an intentional response to God's generosity. Such an invitation most commonly occurs in the fall before the planning of the coming year. Please watch for information to begin arriving in the mail in September. This mailing will include a schedule that will help you anticipate your desire to support the church as a volunteer and financial contributor to the ministry of Saint Andrew. Thank you for your past, current and potential level of giving and participation.

"Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above." – JAMES 1:17a

Thank you, Lord, for always answering prayer, but not indulging my every petty, private request. Thank you for winnowing and refining, vetoing and delaying, refusing and revising. Thank you for being God and never less, for freeing me for wide horizons, for protecting me from my limited vision and wayward will. Thank you for foiling my every effort to unseat you and make myself king. Thank you for keeping it safe for me to pray.
