PASTORAL REFLECTIONS — Pastor Craig

I recently had the privilege of participating in the ordination of a young lady from Illinois. It was a day of mixed blessings as it provided an opportunity to see members of a former congregation whom I had not seen in over two years and to preach at the special service of a young lady who will make a great pastor in the life of the church. It was fun to share in her journey and see how God had been shaping her for 15 years since her baptism to this special day. It was also time for me to realize there is a new pastor in the community. Time has moved along and likewise so have I.

Many life experiences provide opportunities to reflect and reassess life's journey. I spent the week following this experience as time for continuing education thinking about the satisfaction of where I have come from, the gratitude of where I am and the anticipation of the possibilities of where the journey of life might yet lead over the next 5, 10, 20 years. There is indeed much we can learn if we but take the time to reflect and ponder the world around us. It was, in a way, a Sabbath week. (For more about Sabbath, check out an article in the most recent issue of The Lutheran from the church library.)

Going back to what was home for 14 years but now is two years removed reminded me that here in Wisconsin, I am home, for this is where I believe God has called me to live and serve and to continue my journey of faith at this time.

So when you ask me "what did you do during your week of continuing education?" I might just respond with, "Not much. Not much at all and it was a wonderful Sabbath week." I sincerely hope your summer included time of Sabbath—to rest and reflect upon your journey of faith and life and to consider the blessings and opportunities that are around you.

The life and ministry of Saint Andrew Lutheran Church shall be open to all who wish to express their faith in God through Jesus Christ by worship, learning, witness and service.

WEEKLY WORSHIP

Thursdays at 12:15 – 6:15 pm
Sundays at 8:00 – 9:30 am

Lectionary 21

Paul urges us to not be conformed to this world, but to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice, using our individual gifts to build up the body of Christ. In response to God's merciful activity, we are to worship by living holistic, God-pleasing lives. Our values and viewpoints are not molded by this age, but are transformed by the Spirit's renewing work. God's grace empowers different forms of service among Christians, but all forms of ministry function to build up the body of Christ.

Lectionary 22

Paul presents benchmarks for faithful relationships with Christians and non-Christians. Love is the unflinching standard of our behavior. When we encounter evil, we do not resort to its tactics but seek to overcome it with good. While Christians cannot control the actions and attitudes of others, we seek to live at peace with all people. In worship we gather as a community that we might offer ourselves for the sake of the suffering world.
