Reflections by Pastor Jenn

In the age of GPS apps and smart phones, it's difficult to get really, really lost. The summer after my sophomore year of high school I was with a group of friends from church, backpacking in the mountains. On the second day, our guides told us that they were lost and that WE were lost. They parked us for a while in the meadow while they went off to go look for the next part of the trail. For one afternoon, we were lost—and it was exhilarating and relaxing. I remember feeling free.

But sometimes being lost is aggravating—especially when you sense an urgency to be somewhere else. Stopping and asking for directions can feel like a let down. Back tracking to get on the right road can feel like a waste of time. Dealing with a span of time that holds unexpected challenge can be disorienting. The gap between when we know we are lost and when we find our way again is a burden and it is a blessing. Sometimes, when you get off course, you find something you wouldn't have ever expected to find—like a nap under the blue sky in the midst of a mountain meadow.

This Lent we will focus on losses of all kinds through the theme, "Life in the Wilderness". We will honor the important roll these losses play in helping us to know the depth of God's mercy more fully. But we also focus on what Christ does in the gap, between the loss and the moment of resurrection. Paul writes to the Philippians, "Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Jesus my Lord." To enhance the Lenten theme on a deeper level I would invite you to consider a Lenten discipline that draws you to focus on an intention surrounding the theme. Here are a couple of ideas available to you through Saint Andrew:

- A Lenten Book Study: Because of This, I Rejoice is a small book by Max Vincent that takes a look at the theme of joy through the book of Philippians. I would encourage you to use this book as a personal devotion—a devotion you might choose to do with your significant other, in the context of your family or with a group of small friends. Ministry groups that already exist might choose to take on this book together. Faith Formation ministry is also launching a few small groups that will be working through the book together at varying times and locations (See page 2) as well as information on cost and signing up to order a copy through church.
- A worship Service with prayer for Healing: The first Sunday in Lent, in addition to Holy Communion, we will also offer the liturgy for healing. The liturgy in Evangelical Lutheran Worship (p. 276) includes prayer with the laying on of hands and anointing with oil. Participation in this potion of the liturgy is optional but available for those who feel a need for emotional, spiritual, mental, and physical healing of any kind —through Christ.
- Midweek Lenten worship and Soup and Sandwich Fellowship: Check out the themes and times below and come and enjoy some fellowship over delicious soup.

National Quilt Day - March 16

"Those who sleep under a Quilt, sleep under a blanket of Love." For nearly 70 years, compassionate people have put their faith into action and made quilts for people in need around the world. These gifts of love make life brighter, softer, and a bit more comfortable for our neighbors around the world struggling with displacement, chronic poverty, illness, natural disaster or conflict. In 2018 approximately 150 quilts were made and shared by Saint Andrew members to:

Lutheran World Relief, Aspirus Wausau Hospice
California Wildfires (California Lutheran Univ.), Pride Assisted Living, Fundraiser in support of a Saint Andrew member, valor quilts given to SALC veterans, banner celebrating Matt Seegert's seminary graduation.

LENTEN BOOK STUDY

Faith Formation Ministry invites you to journey through Lent with a six week study of the book "Because of This I Rejoice" which looks at Paul's letter to the Philippians for ways to find joy during Lent. There are three weekly opportunities planned for discussion in a casual small group setting, but feel free to coordinate your own small group! Please contact the church office with any questions and look for more information to come on the Saint Andrew website, Facebook, and in the Narthex. The study begins:

Sunday March 10, 10:45-11:45 am at Saint Andrew

Wednesday March 13, 7:15-8:15 pm at Saint Andrew

Thursday March 14, 7:00-8:00 pm at Bull Falls Brewery

PRETZEL SUNDAY

Sunday, March 10

Join the Fellowship Ministry for a warm pretzel as a special Lenten treat. Though the exact origins of the pretzel remain mysterious, legend has it that the story began around A.D. 610, when Italian (or French) monks presented their young students with treats of baked dough twisted in the shape of crossed arms. At the time, crossing one's arms was the traditional posture for prayer. As the custom spread through medieval Europe, the pretzel's three holes came to represent the Holy Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—and the twisty baked good became associated with good luck, long life and prosperity. What tradition helps you remember to pray and ponder God's blessings?

ELCA WORLD HUNGER'S 40 DAYS OF GIVING

Social Ministry is planning to donate 10% of Lenten Soup donations to support the ELCA World Hunger's 40 Days of Giving. In addition, they will also match up to $600 of what the congregation gives to the ELCA World Hunger throughout Lent. Look for more details at the Information Desk.

Check It Out...From the SALC Library

"The Question That Never Goes Away: Why" (248.8 YAN)

Thirty-five years after writing his first book, Yancey revisits our cry of "Why, God?" in three places stunned into silence by the calamities that have devastated them. There are reasons to ask, once again, the question that never goes away: "Where is God when we suffer?" And Yancey, once again, leads us to find faith when it is most severely put to the test.

"Building Family Ties With Faith, Love & Laughter" (306.8 STO)

This book shares practical tips on how your family can achieve a close-knit love for one another and become each other's best friends.

Thank you, Lord, for always answering prayer, but not indulging my every petty, private request. Thank you for winnowing and refining, vetoing and delaying, refusing and revising. Thank you for being God and never less, for freeing me for wide horizons, for protecting me from my limited vision and wayward will. Thank you for foiling my every effort to unseat you and make myself king. Thank you for keeping it safe for me to pray.
