

A reading from Jeremiah.

(Not Printed)

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 46

A reading from Colossians.

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews." One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

WORSHIP WORD

Jesus' true identity seems to remain a mystery for most of the disciples. Jesus can teach, preach, heal, cast out demons, challenge authority and more, but still they do not comprehend. You might say it is a case of mistaken identity as the disciples and other followers seem to be hoping to discover something very different from the real Jesus. It is the criminal executed with Jesus who in his dying desperation says, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Clearly, the criminal has no other hope, still in this moment he acknowledges Jesus' true identity.

Modern followers of Jesus resemble those ancient followers in many ways. Everyone has their own image of Jesus, the gifts we want Jesus to bring us, the ways we want Jesus to fix those things in our lives that cause pain or suffering. In our anxiety we want Jesus to be our magical savior. It can be frustrating when we discover a very different Jesus. Instead of one who fixes everything in an instant, Jesus is the one who walks with us through the darkest valleys. Jesus is the one who calls us to lives of service—and again and again as we care for the needs of others we discover the face of Jesus himself in the lost, the last, and the least.

HYMN OF THE WEEK

Jesus, Remember Me

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home, small group, or use for personal reflections:

- In what ways does a shepherd care for the flock?
- Would you rather be a shepherd or a king? Why?
- What is the difference between an earthly king and Christ the King?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Colossians 1:11-20.

The kings of the Old Testament were considered shepherds, and as shepherds they failed miserably. They scattered God's sheep, God's people, instead of leading them into the future with peace, justice, and trust in God. Jeremiah points out that God would have to intervene directly to execute justice and put an end to war (Jeremiah 23:1-6). In Colossians 1, we see the results of God's intervention. We have been rescued from the power of darkness and have received redemption, the forgiveness of sins (vv. 13-14). This is no earthly shepherd or king: "For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell," and through whom all things—things in heaven and things on earth—have been reconciled to God (vv. 19-20). What we could not do, what God's own earthly kings in Judah and Israel could not do, God did alone through Christ. For reasons that we cannot even fully grasp, list, or tell, we give thanks to God for the reign of Christ. Take a moment and—though never a complete understanding or list—give thanks for how Christ serves as ruler of the universe for you and all creation.

Pray: Dear Creator and Redeemer, in Christ we give thanks for your goodness and mercy that far exceeds all that we can know or understand. Help us to give thanks as we are able. Amen.

SERVICE

Luke 23:33-43 tells of a dark time in the life of Jesus. He was arrested and punished for something he did not do. Jesus did not get angry but asked God to forgive the people. On the cross, Jesus had a criminal on his left and on his right. One of them said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" (v. 42). Jesus replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise" (v. 43). Christian ministries reach out to those incarcerated with hope through Jesus Christ. Do you know of a prison ministry? Pray for those who are in prison and for those who work with them.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

Both adults and children lead busy lives. Moments of quiet are not easy to find. From cell phones to computers to work and school and sports, we fill our days with noise and screen time. This distracts us from God. This week's reading from Psalm 46:10 reminds us to "Be still and know that I am God!" Take five minutes each day to turn off the television/radio, and be silent. Be still and listen to God. After the silence, write down your thoughts on a piece of paper and place it in your Bible as a marker for Psalm 46. At the end of the week, review your notes.

Why do you think God desires stillness? What difference does it make?

HYMN FOR THANKSGIVING DAY

God of the Sparrow

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home, small group, or use for personal reflections:

- When you worry about something, how do you calm yourself?
- Name or think of something you are thankful for. How do you show your thanks?
- What does "the peace of God which surpasses all understanding" mean to you?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Philippians 4:4-9.

There seems to be an inverse equation: the more we have, the less happy or thankful we are. When people think about their own wealth, they can almost always think of someone with more. Our source of thanksgiving is not our assets or personal security. It's God. Placing our wants and needs before God in a spirit of thanksgiving separates us from those who pursue their wants and needs with more and more lust, greed, and personal power. A thankful heart believes that all real gifts come from God and all real joy comes from knowing the gift giver. Whatever our wants, whatever our disappointments, whatever our worries and fears, we have a God who knows it all and gives us "the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding" (v. 7). It is a peace that knows the peacemaker, the thirst quencher, the hunger filler, the anxiety solver, the forgiveness giver, wound-healer, Christ Jesus. Think for a moment about what is getting in the way of the peace that passes all human understanding. Offer those concerns as supplications (humble requests) to God that you may experience a life that knows what is true, honorable, just, pure, pleasing, commendable, excellent, and worthy of praise (v. 8).

Pray: The Lord's Prayer.

SERVICE

Most of us are blessed with lots to eat on this Thanksgiving Day but for those who are hungry, it is not easy to think about anything else. God's gift of manna fed the Israelites in the wilderness. Jesus fed the 5,000 from five barley loaves and two fish. In John 6:35, Jesus says, "I am the bread of life, whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." How can you help the hungry in your community so that they experience the true bread of life?

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

This is a day of thanks, one of thanksgiving. In Deuteronomy 26:1-11, the Israelites celebrate the first harvest by filling baskets with fruit and laying them in front of the altar. They were thankful for what God had given them. Fill a basket with different kinds of fruit and place it on your Thanksgiving table. Before the meal, pass the basket around the table and ask each person to take a piece of fruit, hold it up, and tell something they are thankful for. When all have taken a turn, say a psalm of thanksgiving: Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name (Psalm 100:4).
