THANKSGIVING FOR THE WORD

O God of justice and love, we give thanks to you that you illumine our way through life with the words of your Son. Give us the light we need, awaken us to the needs of others, and at the end bring all the world to your feast; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory forever.

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

SENDING

BLESSING

Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers,
nor things present, nor things to come,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor anything else in all creation,
will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

God, the creator, + Jesus, the Christ,
and the Holy Spirit, the comforter,
bless you and keep you in eternal love.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Go forth into the world to serve God with gladness; be of good courage;
hold fast to that which is good; render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak;
help the afflicted; honor all people;
love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Thanks be to God.

A word about Pastoral Care

Pastor Jeff, Pastor Justin, and Pastor Jenn are available for previously scheduled and emergent pastoral care via e-mail, phone, zoom, or facetime. Please contact them directly if you have pastoral care like pre-marital work or regular conversation to receive a link for a Zoom conversation. We are in touch with local chaplains and are learning that visits are not allowed at many facilities. Thank you for your patience as we learn a new way to minister during this time.

Use this resource at home to guide your household's daily devotions.

Pray: Light a candle and open your devotion time with a prayer.

Gracious God, you guide us through the most difficult times of our lives. Give us hope in Christ that we, like he, will rise again. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Reflect: Reflect on the key verses from Sunday's reading.

"For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth; and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!" Job 19:25-27

Study: Study the reading and consider the background.

Job has lost everything. Or so it seems. Here, after friends and health have deserted, can he find hope for rebirth out of the ashes of grief?

Read: Read the following daily readings to deepen your understanding of Sunday's text. After the reading, ask the follow-up questions.

Sunday, Job 14:7-15; 19:23-27, Job's Prayer

Monday, Job 15, Eliphaz Speaks

Tuesday, Job 16, Job Replies

Wednesday, Job 17, Job's Prayer

Thursday, Job 18, Bildad Speaks

Friday, Job 19, Job Replies

Saturday, Job 20, Zophar Speaks

How does Job respond to his friends' accusations?

Connect: Connect in conversation with others in your household. Discuss the following questions, or simply check in with "Highs" and "Lows."

What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?

What kinds of things can you pray for? Is there anything that is off limits concerning prayer? Why or why not?

Tell a story of a time you prayed boldly. What was the outcome of your prayer?

Do: By acting on what we learn we make God's word come alive. Do the following activity this week.

Pray boldly for things that you have been reluctant to pray for. (Healing, relief from financial stress, mending of a broken relationship) Pray as if there is nothing you cannot pray for.

Bless: Close your devotion with a blessing.

May God receive your prayers with patience and love. Amen.

Do you ever get something stuck in your mind?

Job had so much on his mind—as he thought about everything that happened to him, he talked to his friends and he talked to God. His friends offered advice over and over, but Job wished they would be quiet—he just wanted to know what God thinks!

While Job tried to figure things out, he wondered out loud why life is so full of trouble. He wondered why life is so short. He wondered why good things never seem to last for people. He felt like a wispy cloud blowing around in the wind, here for a moment and then gone forever.

Yes, Job had a lot on his mind and he was sad—confused and angry, too. But the amazing thing is that he still had hope. He didn't understand why anything happens the way it does, but he still had tiny, green buds of hope growing inside him that things will be ok. Even though everything around him felt awful, he trusted that God was on his side. Job dreamt about a light at the end of the tunnel—that light was God. Someday, Job hoped to know joy again.

Trusting that everything will turn out okay!

Pass on the HOPE to the Erin the Snail in the center. Don't freak out like Mr. Turtle, though!
