OFFERING MOMENT

THANKSGIVING FOR THE WORD

O God of justice and love, we give thanks to you that you illumine our way through life with the words of your Son. Give us the light we need, awaken us to the needs of others, and at the end bring all the world to your feast; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory forever.

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

SENDING

BLESSING

Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers,
nor things present, nor things to come,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor anything else in all creation,
will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

God, the creator, + Jesus, the Christ,
and the Holy Spirit, the comforter,
bless you and keep you in eternal love.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Go forth into the world to serve God with gladness; be of good courage;
hold fast to that which is good; render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak;
help the afflicted; honor all people;
love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Thanks be to God.

A word about Pastoral Care

Pastor Jeff, Pastor Justin, and Pastor Jenn are available for previously scheduled and emergent pastoral care via e-mail, phone, zoom, or facetime. Please contact them directly if you have pastoral care like pre-marital work or regular conversation to receive a link for a Zoom conversation. We are in touch with local chaplains and are learning that visits are not allowed at many facilities. Thank you for your patience as we learn a new way to minister during this time.

Christ in our Home Devotional

Christ in Our Home quarterly devotional resource encourages readers to live out their faith daily. Use this resource at home to guide your household's daily devotions.

Pray: Light a candle and open your devotion time with a prayer.

Long suffering God, your ears are always open to your children. We implore you to hear us with patience and correct us with compassion, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Reflect: Reflect on the key verses from Sunday's reading.

"Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, or press down its tongue with a cord? Can you put a rope in its nose, or pierce its jaw with a hook?" Job 41:1-2

Study: Study the reading and consider the background.

Job's journey has been long and wearying. He begins to see the whole of it from his limited perspective, and is led to repent for his impulsive words.

Read: Read the following daily readings to deepen your understanding of Sunday's text. After the reading, ask the follow-up questions.

Sunday, Job 38:25-27; 41:1-8; 42:1-6, The Lord Challenges Job

Monday, Job 29-30, Job's Defense

Tuesday, Job 31, Job's Defense

Wednesday, Job 32, Elihu Rebukes Job's Friends

Thursday, Job 33, Elihu Rebukes Job

Friday, Job 34, Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

Saturday, Job 35, Elihu Condemns Self-Righteousness

What does Elihu say about the question of suffering?

Connect: Connect in conversation with others in your household. Discuss the following questions, or simply check in with "Highs" and "Lows."

What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?

What do you think about God's response to Job? Is God's response or attitude consistent with what you know about God?

Tell a story of a time you were humbled by God's response to your prayers.

Do: By acting on what we learn we make God's word come alive. Do the following activity this week.

Watch the news each night this week. Write down two or three stories that seem too big for humanity to fix or heal. Pray for those situations, that God will intervene where humans are too small.

Bless: Close your devotion with a blessing.

May God remind you that, although you are small, God is big. Amen.

Job 38 & 41

God continued to paint pictures in Job’s mind sharing with him all the amazing things God can do that people can’t. God made everything in the whole, wide world and made it all so beautiful and perfect! From the tiniest insect to the tallest mountain, God made it all – the Master Artist at work!

After a while, God was done speaking, and Job finally understood how wrong he had been. He felt his cheeks turn red and he hung his head, because he felt ashamed for babbling on and on about things he didn’t understand. Who was he to dare God? Who was he to question anything God did?! He knew he would never see life—or God—the same way again. He asked God, “Please forgive me! I know you are in charge. Now I understand with my own eyes and ears how great you are. I will never doubt you again.”
