THANKSGIVING FOR THE WORD

O God of justice and love, we give thanks to you that you illumine our way through life with the words of your Son. Give us the light we need, awaken us to the needs of others, and at the end bring all the world to your feast; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory forever.

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

SENDING

BLESSING

Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers,
nor things present, nor things to come,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor anything else in all creation,
will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

God, the creator, + Jesus, the Christ,
and the Holy Spirit, the comforter,
bless you and keep you in eternal love.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Go forth into the world to serve God with gladness; be of good courage;
hold fast to that which is good; render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak;
help the afflicted; honor all people;
love and serve God, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Thanks be to God.

A word about Pastoral Care

Pastor Jeff, Pastor Justin, and Pastor Jenn are available for previously scheduled and emergent pastoral care via e-mail, phone, zoom, or facetime. Please contact them directly if you have pastoral care like pre-marital work or regular conversation to receive a link for a Zoom conversation. We are in touch with local chaplains and are learning that visits are not allowed at many facilities. Thank you for your patience as we learn a new way to minister during this time.

Use this resource at home to guide your household's daily devotions.

Pray: Light a candle and open your devotion time with a prayer.

Lord, you are ultimately merciful and always provide a way for reconciliation. Continue to restore us, and bring us into closer relationship with you, our Creator. Amen.

Reflect: Reflect on the key verse from Sunday's reading.

And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Job 42:10

Study: Study the reading and consider the background.

Finally, God deals with Job's errant friends, demanding prayer and sacrifice for their folly. Job's family relationships are restored, and so is his property.

Read: Read the following daily readings to deepen your understanding of Sunday's text. After the reading, ask the follow-up questions.

Sunday, Job 42:7-17, Job Is Restored

Monday, Job 36-37, Elihu Exalts God's Goodness

Tuesday, Job 38, The Lord Answers Job

Wednesday, Job 39, The Lord Answers Job

Thursday, Job 40, Job's Response and God's Challenge

Friday, Job 41, God's Challenge

Saturday, Job 42, Job is Restored

How does God challenge Job? What is Job's response?

Connect: Connect in conversation with others in your household. Discuss the following questions, or simply check in with "Highs" and "Lows."

What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?

What does Job's restoration say about God? How do you explain suffering that does not end in the same way Job's suffering ended?

Tell a story of a time you were restored from suffering. Tell of a time you or someone you loved were not restored.

Do: By acting on what we learn we make God's word come alive. Do the following activity this week.

Consider a time when someone you loved or trusted steered you wrong. Write the situation on a piece of paper. Say a prayer on behalf of the person. Burn the paper (safely) and let the situation go. Resist the temptation to demand an apology. Burn your resentment with the paper. Let it go.

Bless: Close your devotion with a blessing.

May God restore you to wholeness and health. Amen.

Job 42

The friends who had been with Job had said some things about God that weren't true and God was upset. God said that it would be good for Job to pray for them and Job did. God forgave them. Job understood that prayer is a powerful thing. God loves it when we talk to him with our prayers.

Finally, there was a happy ending. After all of Job's soul-searching, and all the talking with his friends, and God's talk with Job, things began to change for Job. Before he knew it, blessing upon blessing was flowing over him—just like running through a sprinkler on a hot, summer day. He had more animals and possessions than ever before—but best of all, his family grew again. He had more sons and more daughters and his house was full of love and good fortune.

Job lived to be a very old man. He was so happy as the years went by and he had grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The time of tears was over. His time of joy had come! Hurray!
