Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who was in the beginning, who makes a dwelling among us, who covers us with justice and mercy. Amen.

God of goodness and lovingkindness, we confess that we have sinned against you and our neighbors. We have turned away from your invitation to new life. We have turned away from the lowly and downtrodden. In your abundant mercy, forgive us our sins, those we know and those known only to you, for the sake of the one who came to live among us, Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

Hear the good news of peace and salvation! God forgives us all our sins, not through our own work, but through † Jesus Christ, made known to all people. With all who come to the manger, rejoice in this amazing gift of grace. Amen.

Hymn

O Come, All Ye Faithful

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant!
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
come and behold him, born the king of angels:

Refrain

O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

The highest, most holy, light of light eternal, born of a virgin, a mortal he comes;
Son of the Father now in flesh appearing! Refrain

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God in the highest: Refrain

WORD

Readings

A reading from Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Solo

O, Holy Night

A reading from Titus.

The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

vs. 3

Away in a Manger

Away in a manger, no crib for his bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head;
the stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!" When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Gospel Response

Away in a Manger

The cattle are lowing; the baby awakes, but little Lord Jesus, no crying he makes.
I love you, Lord Jesus; look down from the sky and stay by my cradle till morning is nigh.

Sermon

Hymn

Angels We Have Heard on High

Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o'er the plains, and the mountains in reply, echoing their joyous strains.

Refrain

Gloria in excelsis Deo; gloria in excelsis Deo.

Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why your joyous strains prolong?
What the gladsome tidings be which inspire your heav'nly song? Refrain

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee
Christ the Lord, the newborn king. Refrain

Nicene Creed

Gathered by the manger, let us profess our faith.
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,* who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

Prayers of Intercession

Joining our voices with the song of the angels, let us pray for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

A brief silence.

The shepherds sing, "Jesus Christ is born!" Let your church throughout the world proclaim this good news, over the hills and everywhere. Unite the voices of all your faithful people in songs of praise and rejoicing.
Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Heaven and nature sing, "Joy to the world!" Give respite to flocks, fields, and those who tend them. Come near to us in the beauty of nighttime, the shining of the stars, and the hush of a world at rest. May our wonder at your creation rouse our care for all the earth. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

The angels sing, "Peace on earth!" Come quickly to still the strife of this world. Hush the noise of war and violence in places of unrest (especially). Inspire leaders of nations to seek lasting peace and sustainable provision for all in their care. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Mary sings melodies of comfort to her newborn child. Bring rest and reassurance to those facing struggles this night. Shelter travelers and those without homes. Console those who lie awake due to pain or anxiety. Heal those who are sick or hurting (especially). Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Love sings through the sound of a new baby's cry. Bless new parents and expectant parents. Comfort those who long for children, especially those running out of hope or options. Surround families of every shape and size with your love and care. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

The heavenly chorus sings, "Glory to God in the highest!" We give you thanks for all the saints who have proclaimed your glory in word and deed (especially). Let us join them this night in joyful praise around your eternal throne (especially). Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of mercy, come quickly to us with grace upon grace as we lift these and all our prayers to you, in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

The peace of Christ be with you always...

thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,

Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright Silent night, holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight; glories stream from heaven afar, heav'nly hosts sing, alleluia!

Christ, the savior, is born! Christ, the savior, is born."

Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at your birth.

Amen.

Sending Hymn

Go Tell It On the Mountain

Refrain:

Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
Go, tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born.

While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night,
Behold, through-out the heavens there shone a holy light. Refrain

The shepherds feared and trembled when, lo, above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior's birth. Refrain

Down in a lonely manger the humble Christ was born;
and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn. Refrain

HYMN FOR CHRISTMAS

Silent Night

CHRISTMAS MILESTONES

Take a moment to tell or think about a recent mountain high and/or valley low in your life.

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home, small group, or use for personal reflections:

- Tell or think about a time when you surprised someone.
- Tell or think about a time when someone surprised you.
- How does Jesus' birth in Bethlehem amaze you?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Luke 2:1-20.

The shepherds in the fields have a startling encounter with God, bringing them good news of Jesus' birth. In that time and place, shepherds were described as "sinners." Their work in the fields kept them from observing the Sabbath. They were unclean and seen as liars, thieves, and generally unsavory. With this social stigma, they are likely people who had themselves given up on God. More than outcasts, they had simply walked away from hope in the mercy of God. In Luke 2, God does not give up on the shepherds—or us—as God reaches out to them in the fields. God didn't wait for them to show up at the temple or the synagogue. God doesn't have to wait for us to show up at "church," either. The startling news of Jesus' birth is that it is for those who need God most. When have you felt like giving up on God? How does this birth story help you hear good news?

Pray: Loving God, help us to hear the good news of Jesus' birth for all the world, especially when we feel far from you; in the name of Jesus, the Savior, Messiah, and Lord, amen.

SERVICE

There are those around us in need of seeing God's love in action. Is there a local soup kitchen or shelter where you can volunteer time or donate items this week for those in need of seeing the good news of Jesus birth in action?

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

Make your Christmas Day into a celebration of Jesus' birthday. Use some Christmas pastries or a cake to help celebrate. Place a white candle in its center and on Christmas Day, light the candle, sing "Happy Birthday" to Jesus, and then take time to complete this sentence:

Say: The birth of Jesus is special to me because _____.

Then sing some Christmas carols.

In addition to Taking Faith Home, celebrate milestones in your daily life as an effective faith formation tool. Go to: www.milestonesministry.org

CHRISTMAS EVE AND CHRISTMAS DAY

CHRISTMAS EVE

This Christmas Eve, as you finish up all the last minute things on your lists, wrap up your church's Christmas Eve service, or enjoy time with family, take a moment to read the following scripture passage together. Spend some time reflecting on how Jesus entered the world.

SCRIPTURE

Read Luke 2:1-7

*"In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. ### CHRISTMAS DAY

SCRIPTURE

Read Luke 2:20

REFLECTION

Merry Christmas! Joy to the world! The Lord has come!

The universe is vast, our world is ginormous, and there are plenty of problems to keep us busy. However, on Christmas, we stop and think about the birth of Jesus. We focus our vision on something small, something powerfully tiny, in a small place, in a distant time. This newborn baby has our full attention.

When we focus on the birth of Jesus, the rest of the world grows dimmer. The volume of the distractions around us decreases. We smell the warm head of the baby and the oil of frankincense. We see the glow of light around his mother as she holds him. We touch the worn hands of the shepherds as they pray and thank God. We imagine ourselves in this cozy place, full of love, joy, peace, and hope. Is there any better place to be? Why can't the rest of our lives feel like Christmas?

The lesson of Christmas is that we can live out love, joy, peace, and hope every day. When the problems of our lives grow too big in our minds, when we are overwhelmed with fears or worries, or when we forget the good news of great joy that has come to all humankind, we can stop and reflect again. Because the Good News is Emmanuel, God with us, we can find ourselves beside Jesus, basking in God's goodness, on any day and at any time.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

As you color the coloring page, ponder these questions:

- What else do you see, hear, touch, smell, and taste on Christmas morning? When you close your eyes and imagine yourself with Mary, Joseph, and Jesus, how do you feel?
- How is this day different for your family? What are the important sights, smells, tastes, sounds, and feelings of the day?
- If we stop thinking about all of the worries and stressors for a day, what happens to our minds, bodies, and spirits?

ACTIVITY

Materials:

- This week's Activity Pages
- Empty toilet paper roll
- Blank 8.5x11 paper
- Glue or tape
- Scissors
- Tape
- Art supplies (markers, crayons, paint, glitter, etc.)

When you walk outside and look at the stars, can you count them all? Can you pick your favorite star? When we are looking at the whole night sky, it is difficult to see just one star. When you want to see one beautiful, flickering star, you can pull out a telescope to zoom in. The same is true in our lives. When our problems grow big in our minds, and we are overwhelmed with fears and worries, it is hard to see the good news of God's great joy.

That is why it is important to focus on the words of our faith like hope, peace, joy, and love to remind us the good news of Jesus is always with us.

Let's make a poster and telescopes to remind us to shift our focus onto these words of our faith on the days when our fears seem extra loud. Fold your blank paper in half lengthwise, like a hotdog. Cut your paper on the fold line and decorate your telescope paper as creatively as you like. This paper will be the outside of your telescope. Let your telescope decorations dry completely before moving onto the next step. Once dry, turn your telescope paper upside down and put glue on the undecorated side of the paper. Then wrap your telescope paper around the toilet paper roll and allow it to dry.

As you wait for the glue to dry, make the poster using the instructions included with the Activity Pages and fill the poster with words that remind you that the good news of great joy is for you, your family, your friends, and the whole world. Color in the rest of the poster and hang it somewhere visible in your home. When you feel overwhelmed with worry or fear, grab your telescope and use it to focus on one of these words at a time and receive the message they have for you. As we move into a brand new year, you can use your telescope to look at your poster to remind you that the good news of the greatest joy is all around you and inside you. Make your poster using the instructions included with the activity page.

PRAAYER

Dear God,
We trust you are with us in this new year and always.
When fears grow in us and around us,
help us to remember we can hold hope,
bring peace,
practice joy,
and choose love.

Amen.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR POSTER

Follow the directions below, and have fun creating and coloring your poster!

Printing:

When you print, select either "Scale" and set at 96% or "Scale to Fit (Print Entire Image)." Each page contains "crop marks" that guide you as you cut margins off around the image. You can get an idea of how they work by looking at the sample image below:

A4 Mosaic Poster Tiles:

Download Mosaic Poster Tiles formatted for A4 paper here: <http://illustrtdm.in/Advent2020A4>

Assembly:

Cut: When it's time to assemble, use the crop marks to guide you through cutting off the margins. Please be careful not to cut into the image. This format is designed to meet together when placed side by side, and there is no overlap of images on the paper.

Arrange: Piece together the poster by arranging the images on a table or floor, as you would a puzzle. Keep in mind you are creating a beautiful, collaborative piece of communal art, not a gallery-ready fine art print (so don't be discouraged if it doesn't line up 100%).

Tape: We recommend focusing on one page at a time as you begin to tape the pieces together. When two pages match and line up to your satisfaction, tape them together. Match the next page, line it up to your satisfaction, and tape them together. Continue until you complete taping all the pages together and make a complete poster.
